April 2025

Mission & Vision

Mission: Family Programs promotes family stability and growth through outreach, information, referral, and follow-up services. Connecting the Families to the Military and Civilian community support services that will make a positive difference in their lives.

Vision: Our commitment is to provide a connection between the Special Warfare School Center (SWCS) Families, the Command, and the community resources which promotes self-reliance and resiliency. Through this connection we will increase a Family's ability to develop the life skills necessary to adapt to the unique challenges of Special Operations.

April is Month of the Military Child (MOMC)

“Celebrating Military Children and Youth: Building Stronger Character and Relationships.” Month of the Military Child is observed each April to honor and celebrate Military Children and Youth for their service, commitment, and sacrifice in support of the Army's mission. The observance reiterates the Army's commitment to provide quality care and positive youth development for a bright future. Military children show bravery, fearlessness, and resiliency by adapting and meeting adversity head on in an ever-changing environment.

Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers (BOSS)

Supports the overall quality of life for the 29,000 plus single and unaccompanied Soldiers (including single parents) on the installation. The BOSS program supports the chain of command by identifying quality of life issues and concerns by providing recommendations for improvement.

It assists single Soldiers in identifying and planning recreational and leisure activities that are offered in a safe and exciting environment. It provides an opportunity for single soldiers to participate and contribute to their respective communities and gives the individual a sense of responsibility and involvement.

The BOSS program is vital to overall mission accomplishment and serves as a unified voice for single soldiers. Find out more about your unit and installation program so BOSS can become one of your many tools for success.
